

The Joseph and Rebecca Meyerhoff Center for Jewish Studies
University of Maryland, College Park
Afternoon Lecture Series

Chaim Gans

Tel Aviv University

Historical Rights and the Jews' Return to Their Homeland

Wednesday, February 28, 2007
4:00 p.m., 0142 Holzapfel Seminar Room

Scholar and author, Dr. Chaim Gans, will address the issue of Jews' historical rights. Dr. Gans, a faculty member at Tel Aviv University, currently teaches legal, moral and political philosophy. His books include Philosophical Anarchism and Political Disobedience (Cambridge University Press, 1992), The Limits of Nationalism (Cambridge University Press, 2003); From Richard Wagner to the Right of Return, Philosophical Analysis of Israeli Public Affairs (Am Oved 2006, published in Hebrew). His most recent book, analyzes the justice of Zionism. This lecture is based on one of the chapters of the book.

Light refreshments provided
Events are free and open to the public.