

La Istoria de Purim
Music of the Jews in Renaissance Italy
by

ENSEMBLE LUCIDARIUM

Sunday
March 11
2 pm

Drawing upon the rich traditions of Judeo-Italian, Yiddish and Hebrew literatures and liturgies as well as the instrumental and vocal music of the era, Lucidarium attempts to recreate the soundscape of Jewish life in 16th-century Italy.

Ulrich Recital Hall
in the Tawes Fine Arts Building

Tickets are $25
$7 for students and seniors

Jazz/Fusion/Klezmer

ENRICO FINK & AMICI

Monday
March 12
7 pm

Enrico Fink has emerged as a leading exponent of the new Jewish music in Italy. Drawing on Jewish musical traditions from the liturgical to klezmer as well as on the innovative modernities of Jazz and Fusion music, Fink and his friends have entertained huge crowds in theaters and outdoor concerts in Italy. The concert promises to be a joyous and lively experience; come ready for a great time. This will be the group's first appearance in the D.C. area.

Joseph and Alma Gildenhorn Recital Hall
in the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center

Tickets are $15
students and seniors: $7

2 CONCERTS

Tickets for both events: 301-405-ARTS or www.claricesmithcenter.umd.edu
For information 301-405-4975

JOSEPH AND REBECCA MEYERHOFF
CENTER FOR JEWISH STUDIES

